motivator, inspiration, advocate for women in leadership, entrepreneurship & technology. I met her Årst hand at the Focus Africa event at Abuja in May 2022 and the impact she had on me was so profound. I not only picked the virtue of leadership with simplicity & poise, I now quote her to educate other women on physiological health issues and business. You are indeed a blessing to this generation. This is wishing her God's continuous abundant blessings and open doors for greater impact.

Many Happy Returns to Her Excellency ma.

Oyibo Egwuoniso

For decades, you have e?ortlessly embodied the biblical virtuous woman who loves, supports and honours her husband and takes good care of his entire family as well as estates. Without a doubt, you have been a good wife to our Leader and the Honourable Minister of Petroleum Resources (State), His Excellency Chief Timipre Sylva, and have equally added much value to those of us who rely on him for mentorship and purposeful leadership.

immensely to our lives and interests.

Let me respectfully, on this day, thank you for giving our beloved father the needed peace and support to be the sterling leader that he is, making Okpoama, Nembe, Bayelsa, Niger Delta and Nigeria proud. Thank you for pursuing the well-being of Nigerian women and children with reckless abandon. You are indeed a compassionate, iconic mother who dispenses love to everyone that comes across you and we feel privileged to be associated with you.

On behalf of my beloved family and the amazing people of Brass Constituency II, I felicitate and wish you more graceful years and pray for God to keep you healthy, joyful, blessed and clothed under His wings. Happy birthday, Mummy.

ear Mum, The bond between a mother and her children is sometimes incomprehensible. There are no words or enough gifts in the world to give the one person who has stood for everyone not only to your children but to everybody around you. I've seen you come out from the toughest of battles and survived them through grace. You thought us and everyone around you that "No matter your situation never leave the hands of God" your love for God is second to none.

Celebrating the woman who taught us the basics of life calls, not just on your birthday but on all occasions that concern you.

With a loving heart and a warm embrace, we send this Birthday wishes to the best mother in the world. Have the best one yet. Bassey Joseph and family...
